Tour de France – Toulouse to Pyrenees!

The closing stages of the 2027 Tour de France will allow spectators to enjoy the race defining stages on the Col du Tourmalet (Stage 18) and at the finish line in Laruns (Stage 19). This tour includes four nights in the midi-Pyrenees where the professionals will confront some of the biggest climbs from Le Tour head on!

When it comes to TDF action, Stage 18 will see you watch the race live on the colossal Tourmalet climb. Col du Tourmalet is a challenging climb (18km) which is probably the most famous of all TDF 'cols' with over 100 race route passings.

The Stage 19 finish in Laruns is also traditionally an emotion packed stage. With the Col du Marie Blanque climb close to the finish line the breakaway has a good chance to dispute a reduced sprint finish.

A great four night tour awaits combining worldclass cycling, beautiful scenery, well designed rides and excellent food & wine.

VIVE LE TOUR!

ITINERARY

DAY ONE – Wednesday 21 July 2027 – Toulouse to Lourdes

We can meet you all at Toulouse Airport or a local airport hotel at around 12:00 noon. There will be a 2-hour drive to Lourdes which is our base for the four nights on tour. Lourdes is in the heart of the Midi-Pyrenees and the region always plays hosts to several race defining Tour de France stages. 2027 will be no different with the Pyrenees hosting some big final week action!

This afternoon we will organise a guided walking tour of Lourdes and its cathedral precinct. 'La Grotte' is home to the Notre-Dame de Lourdes basilica. The church says that from 1858 there have been 70 miracles and it is a curious place even if you are not religious. During dinner our team will provide a briefing of the fantastic holiday that now awaits.

Meals: Dinner included
Today's Excursions: Lourdes guided walking tour
Accommodation: Lourdes (Midi-Pyrenees)

DAY TWO – Thursday 22 July 2027 – TDF Stage 18 – Tourmalet

Today you will visit the world-famous Col du Tourmalet. There will be the chance to watch the race at the mid-point of the climb. If you have some good walking legs you can also hike a further 3.5km up the historic 'vie Laurent Fignon` trail. This is the old Tourmalet road which links up with the race route only 4km from the summit. A beautiful switchback viewing point will be your base for cheering on the professionals. Here you will join other passionate fans roadside to watch the excitement unfold as the riders come past. These are the stages that cycling fans around the world look forward to as the peloton takes on the gruelling, relentless accents. Col du Tourmalet is a challenging climb (18km) which is probably the most famous of all TDF 'cols' with over 100 race route passings!

Meals: Breakfast included
Today's Excursion: TDF Stage 18 live viewing
Accommodation: Lourdes (Midi-Pyrenees)

DAY THREE – Fri 23 July 2027 – TDF Stage 19 – Argeles to Laruns

This morning there will be the chance to visit Argeles-Gazost which sits below the hors categorie Col d´Aubisque climb. The Aubisque has been passed almost 50 times during the Tour de France putting it in the top 5 most used climbs in race history. The drive to Laruns will follow the dramatic mountain road which links the Soulor and Aubisque summits. The road breathtakingly hugs the cliffs of the Cirque du Litor, passes two striking tunnels and is simply a driving experience like no other! On reaching Aubisque take some time to soak up the giant TDF inspired bikes found at the summit! Driving down towards Laruns and we will take you directly to the Stage 19 finish. The tour was last in Laruns during 2023 when Jai Hindley won the Stage 5 finish from the breakaway. Post-stage there will be a 1hr drive back to our base in Lourdes.

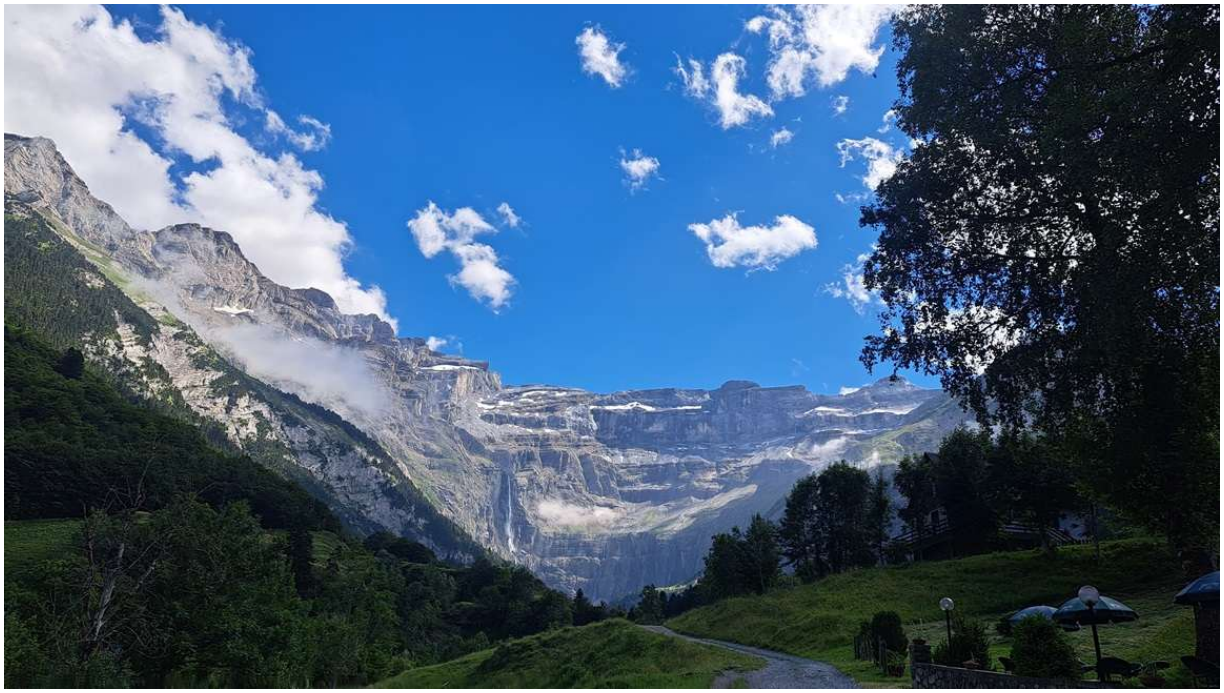

Meals: Breakfast included
Today's Excursion: TDF Stage 19 finish line viewing
Accommodation: Lourdes (Midi-Pyrenees)

DAY FOUR – Saturday 24 July 2027 – Gavarnie National Park

As the TDF now moves north towards Paris, we will take advantage of our prime location in the Pyrenees. A one-hour drive will take you up to the Gavarnie National Park. A walk out to one of Europe's most impressive waterfalls is on the agenda for today. The 440m high waterfall makes one feel tiny as you approach its base. The typical return walk is 8.5km (approx. 3hr), however, it is possible to walk a distance you are comfortable with and then simply return to the village for a coffee.

Note: if you are paying attention, you might just spot the 'marmot' living in its natural habitat. This medium sized rodent was extinct in the Pyrenees until a reintroduction program which started in 1948 has seen good breeding success.

Following lunch in the Gavarnie township we will drive back to Lourdes where it will be time to enjoy a final celebration tour dinner with everyone!

Meals: Breakfast & Dinner included
Today's Excursion: Hike in the Gavarnie National Park
Accommodation: Lourdes (Midi-Pyrenees)

DAY FIVE – Sunday 25 July 2027 – Goodbyes

Following breakfast the guides will be available to transfer you directly to Toulouse Blagnac Airport by 12:00 noon. Please keep this time in mind if you need to book onwards international flights. From here we will say our goodbyes before you continue on your own adventures.

or

Did you know that Lourdes is well connected with the TGV fast train line to Paris (5hr)? Many past clients have taken a morning train and arrived with plenty of time to watch the final TDF Stage 21 finish on the streets of Paris. With the final stage a 'twilight race' the riders typically don't enter Paris until around 6-7pm. If you want any tips about how to organise an extra night in Paris please feel free to ask.
